The Knock-out Blow.

The blow which knocked out Corbett was a revelation to the prize fighters. From the earliest days of the ring the knock-out blow was aimed for the jaw, the temple or the jugular vein. Stomach punches were thrown in to worry and weary the fighter, but if a scientific man had told one of the old fighters that the most vulnerable spot was the region of the stomach, he'd have laughed at him for an ignoramus. Dr. Pierce is bringing home to the public a parallel fact; that the stomach is the most vulnerable organ out of the prize ring as well as in it. We protect our heads, throats, feet and lungs, but the stomach we are utterly indifferent to, until disease finds the solar plexus and knocks us out. Make your stomach sound and strong by the use of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and you protect yourself in your most vulnerable spot. "Golden Medical Discovery" cures "weak stomach," indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, bad, thin and impure blood and other diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" has a specific curative effect upon all mucous surfaces and hence cures catarrh, no matter where located or what stage it may have reached. In Nasal Catarrh it is well to cleanse the passages with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy fluid while using the "Discovery" as a constitutional remedy. Why the "Golden Medical Discovery" cures catarrhal diseases, as of the stomach, bowels, bladder and other pelvic organs will be plain to you if you will read a booklet of extracts from the writings of eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients and explaining their curative properties. It is mailed free on request. Address Dr. R.V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. This booklet gives all the ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's medicines from which it will be seen that they contain not a drop of alcohol, pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Charges President with Cowardice.

Rev. Dr. William J. Long said yesterday evening in Stamford, Conn., that he is prepared to furnish satisfactory evidence of happenings reported in his work which President Roosevelt considers impossible, and that he will publish a completed reply in a magazine next month.

Dr. Long furnished a copy of the following letter, which he has sent to the President:

Dear Sir—I have just read your article in Everybody's Magazine. You have deliberately gone out of your way to attack a man of whom you know nothing and who is honestly trying to do a man's work in the world. You have used the advantage of your high position to injure him, and you have hidden behind another man in your alleged interview.

There are only two noticeable things about your article—its bad taste and its cowardice. Of itself, with all its denials and assertions, which are too easily disproved, it is not worth a gentlemen's consideration. Unfortunately, your high position gives weight even to your foolish words, and for the sake of the truth and of thousands who read my books and love them I am obliged to answer you publicly.

With all my soul I regret this controversy, and shrink from it, but you have brought it upon yourself. I shall say only what many sportsmen, and even some of your associates who flatter you publicly, say secretly behind your back. If the magazine which you boomed by your article has any courage or fairness, you will regret either your own books or your unwarranted attack upon mine. Unlike yourself, when you prepared for this attack, I shall send you proofs as soon as I receive them and give you a chance to defend yourself.

Very sincerely yours,
WILLIAM J. LONG.

Charges and Countercharges.

Joseph Bjelik, 48 years old, small sized and meek in appearance, was haled before Magistrate Finn, in Yorkville New York Court, yesterday on a warrant obtained by his wife, Katherine, who charged Joseph with abandoning her and their two children a month ago.

When the Magistrate asked Bjelik what he had to say for himself Joseph held up a crooked little finger and pointed to an eye that was out of order.

"She did that," he explained through an interpreter, "and she makes me sleep under the bed and feeds me on cold victuals."

"How is this?" demanded Magistrate Finn of Katherine. "Do you beat your husband?"

"Yes, sometimes," the woman replied.

"How often?" persisted the Magistrate.

"Whenever he needs it; sometimes only two or three times a month, sometimes every day. When he is good I don't beat him."

"Well, I guess there is no use trying to reconcile you two," said the magistrate. "Are you willing to pay your wife $6 a week, Joseph?"

Bjelik said he was. Then the magistrate wanted to know of Katharine if she would take her husband's word for the payment.

"I will not," replied Mrs. Bjelik promptly.

"Then I will have to send him to jail," warned the magistrate.

This made Mrs. Bjelik ponder a bit. Finally she said she would take Joseph home, whether he wanted to go or not, and give him another trial.

"All right," said Magistrate Finn.

Then Katharine motioned to Joseph and started for the door with Joseph in her wake.

Arrest of a Suspect.

Capt. McCafferty, chief of the New York detective bureau, with forty detectives, worked all day yesterday trying to find the man who murdered fifteen-year-old Amelia Staffeldt, near Elmhurst, Long Island, Wednesday afternoon. Early yesterday evening the captain ordered the arrest of Henry Becker, of Manhattan, on suspicion. Becker, who is a short, blond man, of twenty-one, was picked up not four blocks from the old Seitz farm, where the crime was committed.

The prisoner made a long statement to McCafferty in which he admitted that he had been in Elmhurst near the scene of the crime at the time of its occurrence. He also confessed that he had been arrested in New York a few months ago for attacking a girl, but said he was discharged.

He also admitted, according to the police, that he was one of the two men whom Mrs. Emily Simonson, a widow, who lives near the scene of the murder, saw washing blood from their hands at the pump in her back yard.

"An old soldier writes about ARIOSA Coffee: "Your coffee is the best and richest coffee I ever drank since I left the service, from '61 until I received your coffee yesterday." A soldier knows coffee by the taste, and the way it makes him feel, and would sooner go without his bread than without his coffee. Arbuckles' ARIOSA was the first roasted, packaged coffee, packaged for protection of consumers, roasted and the pores of each berry sealed with a coating of fresh eggs and pure sugar, to hold the goodness in and make the coffee settle clear and quickly. Better than "fresh roast." Warming a little develops the flavor and makes the grinding easy. Our enormous coffee business, exceeding the next four largest firms in the world together, reduces our average cost per pound, and enables us to give you better coffee for your money than you can buy in any other way. There are more packages of ARIOSA sold in the United States than all the other Coffee packages combined.

SOLD IN SEALED PACKAGES ONLY—FOR YOUR PROTECTION

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 24, 1907.

TODAY is the 46th anniversary of the occupation of Alexandria by the federal troops, the killing of Colonel Ellsworth and James W. Jackson in the Marshall House and the sudden evacuation of the city by the Confederate soldiers. Among the latter were members of the military companies of Alexandria, who had enlisted for the maintenance of their sovereign States and the rights accorded her when she entered the federal compact at the close of the revolutionary war. Incidentally they had cast their lot with the Southern Confederacy which had previously been formed for the perpetuation of Southern rights which at that time were menaced by the election of a republican president who had been repudiated by every Southern State. This chapter in the history of Alexandria is probably the most important. The country had entered a crisis which portended a long struggle, and the Alexandria boys in taking hasty adieux of relatives and friends realized the fact that the time of their return and reunion with those they loved was uncertain. Some never returned, and the services today will be testimonials to such as fell in fighting for principals which have never been relinquished notwithstanding those who battled for them were outing nubered and eventually compelled to succumb in the unequal contest. The survivors of the Army of Northern Virginia in this city which compose R. E. Leo Camp of Confederate Veterans today as on previous occasions will honor the memory of their former comrades. The services, which will be impressive, will be on lines formerly followed by the remnant of the faithful band, whose ranks are being gradually depleted by the ravages of time.

DISPATCHES from Chicago giving Senator Hopkins as authority for the statement that Speaker Cannon, if a presidential candidate, will favor a revision of the tariff at a special session of Congress in 1909, coupled with the vote of the National Association of Manufacturers on Friday in favor of such revision, indicate that there is a growing popular conviction that the time is nearly ripe for the overhauling of the Dingley schedules. President Roosevelt has expressed a desire to have the present schedules amended either in 1908 or 1909, and the advisibility of revision has also recently been urged by Senator Allison, Senator Aldrich, ex-Senator Spooner and his successor, Senator Stephenson. By 1909 the Dingley law will have been in operation twelve years —longer than the average life of an American tariff measure. Even the New York Tribune, the exponent of high tarriff, has this to say of the Dingley law.

It was passed to fit conditions which no longer exist. It was a bridge from one stage in our industrial and commercial expansion to another, and now that the new stage has been reached we should be ready to remodel the out-of-date construction. A tariff must be changed to meet conditions, and only the most myopic "standpatter" will contend that our trade and industrial relations in 1907 bear any close resemblance to our trade and industrial relations ten years ago. The Dingley rates are in many cases out of touch with present national needs, and both for purposes of revenue and for purposes of rational protection could be altered to advantage.

AN inspection recently made under the auspices of the Carnegie Steel Company showed that an eighteen-hour Chicago flyer of the Pennsylvania Railroad had left twenty broken rails in its trail as the result of a single trip from New York to Chicago. This astonishing disclosure alone would point to the imperative need of increasing the strength of the rails used in this country proportionately to the increased weight and speed of the trains they are required to bear. The Engineering News insists that "the railroads have been so anxious to get rails that they could not afford to hold the steel companies too strictly to the specifications of the engineers." This is no doubt true. The failure on the one hand to make good rails and on the other to insist on stipulated quality when considered with reference to the consequent destruction of life in railway smash-ups must be esteemed a criminal recklessness. The Engineering News further declares that if the steel companies were forced to produce a high grade rail of ordinary steel there would be no further trouble. The large price obtained for rails and the large profits of the steel companies, assured to them by governmental favoritism, ought to insure to the purchasers of the rails and to the traveling public who ride upon them the greatest possible care in the process of production. But the steel trust isn't doing business on a humanitarian basis.

Lord Curzon of Kedleston probably will be invited by the Unionists of Rutland to contest the parliamentary vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Finch, who had represented that constituency for 40 years.

From Washington.

The federal investigation of the lumber trust has begun in earnest. The Bureau of Corporations has sent out a half dozen of its keenest probers. Within a week the Wisconsin, Michigan and Minnesota fields will be gone over with a fine tooth comb. Experts will also shortly visit the southern and western fields. The Interior Department, too, is conducting a lumber investigation. This relates entirely to graft cases, however. Federal grand juries in a number of western states are now sitting on such cases, the district attorneys having been directed to work in the closest harmony with Judge Burke, who is in charge of the prosecutions on the part of the Department of Justice. It is understood that the grand jury of Denver will soon report true bills against a number of prominent men. It is known that the operations of a western multi-millionaire, an ex-United States Senator, have been under investigation. The government is preparing also to begin civil action to recover thousands of acres of timber and mineral lands.

Stories have been brought to Washington by officers and other passengers who travelled on the transport Thomas concerning the difficulties at Camp Wallace, in the Phillippines, in which charges were preferred against five officers of the 8th Cavalry by Lieutenant Colonel Ayers. The charges included "conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentlemen," "conduct to the prejudice of good order and discipline" and "disrespect to a commanding officer" The officers against whom the charges were made were Captains Reginald E. McNally and Edgar A. Sirmyer, First Lieutenant George H. Baird and Second Lieutenant Albert H. Mueller and William A. McCain, all of the Eighth Cavalry, Col. Ayers was at that time a major of the Eighth and commanding the post. The situation was unique, in that of the eight troop officers on the station, five were under arrest. This attracted the attention of Major General Weston and of Major General Wood. Col. Ayers was ordered to Manilla to explain the case. Purely personal differences were suspected and Major Charles C. Morton, inspector general of the division, was sent to Camp Wallace to investigate. A strong court-martial board adjourned without having taken up the cases for trial, reporting that there was not sufficient evidence and the officers were all released. It is understood as likely that Colonel Ayers will be brought on to Washington to give his version of the affair.

"Its all nonsense and I'm sick of it" said venerable Senator Pettus today, after an interview with the President about the Brownsville investigation. "The Senate has no more business to take up that matter than you have (indicating one of the newspaper men). If the President has done anything wrong it is the duty of the House to impeach him. The Senate would come in on the trial. I will not agree to any trip down to Texas or anywhere to get additional information on the subject; neither will I agree to an adjournment to meet again on the matter. I'm sure the country at large is just as tired of the whole business as I am, and I'm going to drop it and go home mighty soon." Senator Pettus called at the White House to recommend Lieutenant Colonel William H. Miller of the quartermaster general's office for promotion to the headship of the bureau soon to be made by retirement Col. Humphrey, Col. Miller is from the Tuscaloosa, Ala.

"The wave of radicalism in Russia, France, and Germany is subsiding," said Robert S. McCormick, of Chicago, today. He recently retired from the diplomatic service, after having been ambassador to France and Russia. This is shown by the recent electoral victory over the socialists in Germany and by the fact that the revolutionary tendency that has been spreading over Europe, has spent itself. In Russia, affairs are shaping themselves in the direction of greater constitutional liberty. The autocracy will not entirely pass away, but the people will be given more rights than they have ever enjoyed before. Across the water, the progress of America is greatly admired, and President Roosevelt is regarded as the first citizen of the world today."

The railroads accused by the National Peterolum Association, of Cleveland, O., of maintaining high rates on the transportation on oil in order to benefit the Standard Oil Company using pipe lines produced their witnesses before the Interstate Commerce Commission today. Their statisticians testified that the rates desired by the association would reduce the revenue of the roads from oil transportation one-third from that of last year and 27 per cent from that obtained from rates in effect since January 1st, 1907. This would be unjust to the railroads, it was claimed.

The federal investigation of the lumber trust has begun in earnest. The Interior Department too, is conducting a lumber investigation. This relates entirely to graft cases, however. The government is preparing also to begin civil action to recover thousands of acres of timber and mineral land.

Mrs. Rebecca Axon, of Chester, Pa., was arrested last night. She said the Lord had sent her here to see the President and fix up her troubles. Her husband took charge of her and returned home with her this morning.

Secretary Cortelyou has gone to Canton, O., from New York on account of the illness of Mrs. McKinley.

The President today appointed Alexander W. Harrison postmaster at Lawrenceville, Va.

Chairman Knapp said today that the report that the Interstate Commerce Commission had practically exonerated Harriman was utterly with foundation or excuse. He added that it could hardly be said that the commission had even begun to consider the case. His conversation with the President yesterday was on an entirely different matter.

After a short trial in Criminal Court No. 1 in Washington yesterday before Justice Stafford and a jury, Harrison Wagner, about 65 years old, formerly of Frederick county, Maryland, was convicted of perjury and was remanded to jail to await sentence. Wagner is renowned as one of the most frequent litigants in the world.

The trial of Mrs. Mollie Bowie and her son, Henry Bowie, who are charged with the murder of Herbert Posey, was postponed at LaPlata, Md., to day when it was called before the Charles county Court. Miss Priscilla Bowie, the daughter of the accused woman, became a mother on Wednesday, and as she is one the principal witnesses for the defense the attorneys for the Bowies will ask that a future date be named for the trial.

A scandal has developed in the Eighth United States Cavalry, and five of the eight captains of the regiment are said to have been returned to the United States from the Philippines under arrest with charges of mutinous insubordination against them. They were placed under arrest by direction of Lieut. Col. Ayres, and are now restricted to the boundaries of the reservations at Forts Robinson and Niobrara, Nebr., awaiting action by the War Department.

Mr. Chas. A. Edwards will be tried next Tuesday in the federal branch of the police court in Washington on the charge of assaulting Alejandro Garland, an attache of the Peruvian Legation, of last week, in front of the De Soto apartment house. Felipe Pardo, the Peruvian minister, said yesterday that the trouble between Garland and Edwards was an issue entirely personal with them, and a matter which gave him no concern. He declared emphatically that he proposed to take no part in the affair.

South in Need of Railroads.

President W. W. Finley, of the Southern Railway Company, was one of the speakers at a banquet given at Winston-Salem, N. C., last night by the North Carolina State Bankers' Association. Mr. Finley said that the bank and the railway are two institutions that do not participate directly in the production of tangible commodities, and yet they are both essential to the success of every modern business.

"As bankers," said Mr. Finley, "you are familiar with business conditions throughout this State and throughout the country. You are especially familiar with conditions in the southern States. You know that the greatest need of this section at the present time is increased transportation facilities. As bankers, you know that it costs money to build a railway, to buy cars and locomotives, to lay double tracks, and to acquire and equip terminal properties."

Mr. Finley referred to the present unwillingness of investors to buy railway securities, and said:

"The effect of all this has been to bring about an anomalous state of affairs. At a time when the country as a whole is prospering as never before, when the only apparent obstacle to further advancement is the lack of adequate railroad facilities, and when the managers of the railways are ready and anxious to carry out comprehensive plans for the improvement of their systems— plans that in the South alone would involve the employment of thousands of men and the expenditure of millions of dollars—the money markets of the world are almost closed to them and funds for the completion of work now under way have been obtained only by resorting to short time loans at rates of interest much higher than could prudently be paid for the financing of any new undertaking."

Mr. Finley said that in States where laws had been enacted, the effect of which would be to cripple the railways, a high obligation and heavy responsibility rested upon railway managers. It was their duty to protect the property in the interest of its owners and of the people. It had been their duty, therefore, to the public, as well as to the railway, to submit the question of the validity of these laws to the courts. This step had been taken in no defiant or retaliatory spirit, but only after due consideration, and in the firm conviction that it was a duty no less to the people than to the railways. When the courts had passed upon the questions at issue the result should be loyally accepted by the railways and the public.

William Pendleton.

Virginia News.

Governor Swanson yesterday received a photograph of Gen. Kuroki. The general's signature is in Japanese, across the photograph, which was sent in appreciation of his cordial treatment.

Confederate Memorial Day was observed at Fredericksburg yesterday. The exercises were participated in by Maury Camp of Confederate Veterans, the Daughters of the Confederacy, and the local military company, Washington Guards. Music was furnished by Franklin's Band of that city. After the services flowers were strewn on the graves of the soldiers.

The graves of the Confederate soldiers buried at Manassas were decorated after the memorial day exercises at Manassas Wednesday afternoon. Addresses were delivered by R. L. Gordon, of Louisa; Judge C. E. Nicol, Mr. J. B. T. Thornton, Rev. W. H. K. Pendleton, of Wytheville. Dr. H. M. Clarkson read the poem which had for its theme the unveiling of the statue of Jefferson Davis.

Judge Bennett T. Gordon, of the Circuit Court of Nelson county, has written to Governor Swanson asking him to select and designate some other judge to sit in the already famous case of the Commonwealth vs. W. G. Loving. The letter requests the governor to select some judge, who can be present next Monday morning, or as soon thereafter as is practicable, as Judge Gordon declares that he does not wish to have any connection whatever with the case. The grand jury meets at Lovingston on Monday, and then Judge Loving will be indicted for the killing of Theodore Estes.

Charges of fraud, mismanagement, and insolvency were made in Richmond yesterday in an application for the appointment of receivers for the Southern Interstate Bank of that city. Three stockholders, represented by Attorney John A. Lamb, bring the charges, which involve S. Galeski, president of the bank, and Judge Beverly T. Crump and Joseph B. Montgomery. The receivership was asked for also on the ground that the agreement under which the Bank of Commerce and Trusts took over the affairs of the Southern Interstate was entered into by the directors of the latter institution without the consent of the stockholders. President Galeski is accused of transferring property to his wife and granting discounts without proper security—Judge Crump is alleged to be insolvent and a beneficiary of the methods.

Must Pay Penalty.

"I am no Harry K. Thaw—but plain John Bell. I have no wealth—but if I had, I could produce witnesses whose testimony would acquit me."

With these words a Brooklyn trolley car conductor yesterday closed an impassioned address to the jury that three hours later was to find him guilty of murder in the first degree.

Bell, a young man of mediocre attainments, was happily married a few years ago. A year after the wedding his wife died. Dr. Charles W. Townsend, a prominent Staten Island physician, attended her. On the humble stone that marked her grave, Bell caused to be chiseled "Revenge Renews Our Happy Love in Heaven." To his friends he expressed the conviction that his wife had not received proper medical care.

On the night of January 29th last, Dr. Townsend was shot to death in his bed. He had been awakened by the intruder, and exclaimed: "If you are here to rob, take what you can find, but do not harm my family or me."

The supposed burglar replied: "I want none of your things; I want you," and fired.

Letters subsequently written by Bell caused his arrest, and in court his own family, with the exception of his father, who was excused, appeared against him. A half-brother testified that Bell confessed to having killed the physician for revenge.

Judge Abbott denied a motion for a new trial and forthwith sentenced the prisoner to be electrocuted on the first Monday in July. Bell received the verdict and sentence stolidly. Bell was sentenced to be electrocuted on the first Monday in July.

The Baptists.

The North American Baptists Convention, with its 5,000 delegates from all sections of the North American continent north of the Rio Grande, came to a close at Norfolk, yesterday.

The officers chosen for the convention are H. Strong, of Rochester, N. Y., president; J. Taylor Ellison, of Virginia, first vice president; Charles F. Hughes, governor of New York, second vice president; A. L. Crimmon, of Canada, third vice president; Thomas D. Osborne, of Kentucky, recording secretary; S. D. Meeser, of Michigan, corresponding secretary; E. M. Tuesaher, of Ohio, treasurer.

An executive committee of fifteen was also elected. All elections were in accordance with nominations made by the nominating committee, and were unanimous.

The principal addresses of the day were made by Dr. E. Y. Mullens, president of the Baptist Theological Seminary, at Louisville, Ky., on the contribution of the Baptists to American civilization, and Baron Uxkull, of Russia, who urged the establishment of a Baptist theological seminary in Russia. Dr. J. B. Gambrill, of Texas, offered a resolution indorsing the movement to erect the seminary and proposing that an effort be made to raise $100,000 for this purpose.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Little Girls Witnesses.

New York, May 24.—Two little girls located by the police today as witnesses of the killing of 15-year-old Amelia Staffeldt while picking dandelions near her home in Elmhurst, L. I., Wednesday afternoon, may assist materially in cleaning up the mystery still surrounding the case notwithstanding the arrest of Henry Becker, a youth taken into custody last night on suspicion that he may be implicated. The girl witnesses are Julia Levowitz, 7 and Elizabeth Laub, eleven. Miss Sarah Levowitz, elder sister of Julia, told the girls' story to the police.

Both girls came home about 2 o'clock Wednesday crying bitterly, saying they had just seen Amelia attacked. They noticed two men coming down the road, one riding a bicycle. When the bicycle rider noticed Amelia in the fields he dismounted and both men started toward her. The rider seized the girl's dandelion knife and stabbed her. Both girls screamed, but the men did not notice them, so the children ran and told their story. The proprietor of the store laughed at them. They then ran home.

The police will not say whether the story of the girls strengthens or weakens the case against the man under arrest.

The police have shown Becker's statement that he was working for Dr. Wilson at the time of the murder is false, although Becker was employed at the doctor's home yesterday. They have also discovered that the statement that he slept with his father in New York Wednesday night is untrue. They say they have also discovered that in March Becker was arrested on a charge of assaulting a girl in a tenement hallway.

Becker, according to the police, admits he is the man who was in Mrs. Simonson's yard washing and that he was in the neighborhood at the time of the killing. But they admit they have only circumstancial evidence against him unless the two girls can identify him positively.

Another arrest was promised by the police today within a short while. When this arrest is made officers working on the case say it will startle the countryside as much as did the murder of the little girl. Only a few more shreds of evidence are needed it was stated, to give basis for the arrest.

The latest theory on which the detectives are working is that some one who knew the girl well slew her. Statements by some of the girl's family indicate they hold a similar opinion. Ross Karbach, a brother-in-law of the dead girl made this declaration today. He added "he killed her to hide another crime. He knew that the girl would tell afterward and that he would be prosecuted. Therefore he stabbed her to death to save himself."

Fighting the Oil Trust.

St. Paul, Minn., May 24.—The great battle for the dissolution of the oil trust was begun here in earnest today. The government's leading trust busters confronted eminent counsel retained by the Standard before a full bench of circuit judges of the Eighth circuit.

The question being fought out is whether the government in the bill which it has filed for dissolution of the trust must confine its allegations of wrong doing to the period following 1899. This has come to the court on demurrer. Judge Johnson, of Philadelphia, and Judge Milburn, of New York, in their arguments today, on behalf of the Standard, declared that although the government might manifest deep concern in its affair, the recital of its history could be nothing more than spectacular prejudice, because the present concern was not organized until 1899, and the acts complained of were not made illegal until July 1890 when the anti-trust law was passed.

Counsel for the Standard Company also asked the court to strike from the government's bill the obnoxious term "trusts." They held that the government was aiming to assume what had not been proved that the Standard Oil Company was a trust.

Milton B. Purdy, Assistant to the Attorney General at Washington, and F. Kellogg and C. B. Morrison, who conducted the investigation into the Standard's business, are here to oppose any change in the government's bill, which was filed last year at St. Louis. They will insist that the operations of the trust since its organization in 1870 are not only material but necessary to establish early the conspiracy in restraint of trade, which its promoters and managers skillfully sought to conceal by reincorporation, under New Jersey laws, after its Ohio charter had been declared void by the Supreme Court of that State in action under an anti-trust statute.

Five See Mother Roasted.

York, Pa., May 24.—Her flesh burned almost to a crisp as the result of an accident while boiling soap Wednesday evening, Mrs. Ambrose Linebaugh, about 40 years old, of Dover, this county, died early yesterday morning. The soap was in a big iron kettle over a wood fire in the open kitchen hearth, when some of it splashed out, and the burst of flames ignited the woman's garments. Bewildered, she ran screaming into the yard, followed by her 18-year-old daughter Mabel, who was herself severely burned in a brave effort to beat out the fire. As the woman fell writhing in the grass, with her hair and clothing burned away and her skin hanging in strips, five younger children, stricken almost dumb with grief and horror, gathered helplessly about her. Her husband carried her tenderly into the house, and with her children and her minister, Rev. A. G. Fastnacht, of Salem Union Church, remained at her side until she died.

Couldn't Stop Laughing.

Millville, N. J., May 24.—Such a funny surprise was given Miss Mary Hogan by her friends for her birthday yesterday that she had an hour's hard laugh and came near having fits. She couldn't stop laughing, and her friends became alarmed. Dr. Mander was called, but he was unable to do anything for the hysterical girl. Then her father was called. He decided to take heroic measures, and as he entered the store where his daughter is employed he began to scold her roundly. She stopped suddenly and fell in a faint. She is rapidly recovering from the effects of her long laugh.

A Significant Prayer.

"May the Lord help you make Bucklen's Arnica Salve known to all," writes J. G. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. It quickly took the pain out of a felon for me and cured it in a wonderfully short time." Best on earth for sores, burns and wounds. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's, drug store.

To Act for Judge Gordon.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., May 24. — Gov. Swanson today designated Judge W. B. Barksdale to sit for Judge Bennett T. Gordon at the trial of ex-Judge Loving for the killing of Theodore Estes. Judge Barksdale is a resident of Halifax and is a Baptist laymen of great prominence in the South.

Attacked Industrial Magnates.

Kansas City, Mo., May 24.—Mentioning no names, Justice W. G. Gaynor, of New York, attacked certain industrial magnates at the Knife and Fork dinner here last night. He made the point that the railroads, or iron highways were just as much public highways as the dirt roads and that everyone had the right to use them at the same rates of toll without discrimination. He said that President Roosevelt has not a friend in Wall street, that Wall street calls him dangerous. "But" Gaynor said, "he is not dangerous to the honest man." Gaynor, a democrat, said: "I strongly hope that Roosevelt's successor will be the kind of a man who will continue his policies to the end." Gaynor attacked judges who accepted passes and private cars.

Movement Against Gas Company.

New York, May 24.—Attorney General Jackson today applied to the Supreme Court Justice Davis for an order to cite the Consolidated Gas Company to show cause why the charter and franchises of the company should not be annulled. The order is returned May 28. The action of the Attorney General is to assist in the fight to obtain 80 cent gas for Greater New York. In his recent report against 80 cent gas Mr. Masten, the master appointed by the United State Circuit Court placed a valuation of millions of dollars on certain unexpired franchises of the company, arguing that on this valuation the company could not sell gas at the figure named in the law profitably. Jackson's purpose is to annual the franchises so that the enormous valuation placed upon them cannot defeat the 80 cent law.

Mansfield Suffers Relapse.

London, May 24.—Richard Mansfield, the actor, has suffered a relapse since his arrival here and will be removed to the seashore at Brighton as soon as his condition will permit. Physicians have ordered the change and the trip is to be made today if possible. On the day following his arrival Mansfield appeared much better, but the relapse has alarmed his friends. His brother, Felix Mansfield, said today. "Contrary to our expectations, instead of being benefitted Richard was greatly weakened by the voyage. He suffered a relapse when a few days out from New York but seemed to recover. Now a similar depression has come to him."

General Kuroki in Boston.

Boston, May. 24.—After yesterday spent largely in public functions, General Kuroki is devoting today to sight seeing. After a breakfast at the Touraine, where he insisted on sampling fishballs, baked beans and brown bread, he visited the Public Library. The Art Museum came next. At the Hotel Somerset he attended a luncheon in his honor by the Japanese citizens of Boston. After the luncheon he and his visiting suite visited various places. His visit will conclude with a dinner at the Victorian Club, which, in common other British organization today, is celebrating Empire Day. He is expected to leave Boston tomorrow morning.

Edna May's Honeymoon

London, May 24.—The honeymoon of Edna May, the actress, and Oscar Lewisohn, who are to be married within a few weeks, will be spent in Switzerland, Germany and France. The couple will depart immediately after the wedding will be gone until the end of July when they returned to London they have a house in Cadon Place. Miss Margaret May, sister of the prospective bride, is soon to make her appearance on the stage within a year. She has just completed a two year's course of schooling in Switzerland and is said to have developed a wonderful voice.

Riotous Women.

Rome, May 24.—Women have been the instigators of serious rioting which has occured at Terni. A strike is in progress among employes of the iron works. Yesterday women invaded the works their husbands had left and tried to drive out strike-breakers. When the new men refused to leave the women resorted to breaking the windows and damaging the property in every way possible. It was necessary to call out troops to disperse the mob. Today a similar outbreak occurred, although there was not as much violence as yesterday and more serious trouble is feared.

Lake Mohonk Conference.

Lake Mohonk, N. Y., May 24.—Diplomatic representatives of foreign powers, accredited to the United States, were the principal speakers today at the morning session of the thirteenth annual conference of the Lake Mohonk Conference on International Arbitration.

The conference will close tonight when A. C. Lambain and Albert E. Holt will be the principal speakers.

The Czar's Reply.

St. Petersburg, May 24.—Replying to the congratulations sent him by the council of the empire upon his escape from the plot against his life, Czar Nicholas today sent the following message: "I heartily thank the council of the empire for the expression of its sentiment. I am convinced the council will be a real aid to me in all its works. As for my life, it is not precious to me provided Russia lives in glory, peace and prosperity."

Searching for Missing Boy.

Wilmington, Del., May 24.—Relentless search of every nook and corner of the city, the dragging of the Brandywine creek and the race and a minute search of the woods has failed to throw any light upon the strange disappearence of little Francis Malley, who disappeared on Tuesday from his home here. The case is being discussed in all parts of the city, almost with as much interest as they displayed in the Marvin case.

New York Stock Market.

New York, May 24.—The enormous borrowing demand in the loan crowd was again about the only subject of discussion on the floor of the stock exchange this morning. The tone of the market was practically unchanged from that of yesterday's trading. Opening declines were followed by a general upward movement. The price movements in the majority of the list around midday were extremely narrow, but in almost all cases above the closing prices of yesterday.

The Haywood Trial.

Boise, May 24.—War has been declared between Chief of the Police Francis and certain alleged professional bad men who have drifted into Boise and are now posing as witnesses or detectives concerned in the trial of Haywood for the Steunenberg murder. These men strut about the streets parading fire arms. Both sides of the case disclaim responsibility for their presence. The new venire is about the same calibre as the last. It is believed that a jury will be completed Saturday or Monday.

Town Terrorized.

Hornell, N. Y., May 24.—Hornell was terrorized last night by three desperadoes who shot one man, blew open a safe, tried to blow open another, entered a grocery and a private residence in different parts of the city and shot promiscuously at people who were aroused by them.

The men first visited the electric car barn and when the watchman tried to them off shot him in the face, inflicting a painful wound. The three men were captured.

Will Vote on Strike.

Detroit, Mich., May 25.—The Detroit Street Railway Association employes will vote on Monday on a proposition to strike, the company having flatly refused to consider a demand for an increase of pay. It requires a two-thirds vote to order a strike and it is not believed the radicals can muster sufficient strength. E. W. Moore, of Cleveland, largely interested in the local plant, is here consulting with President Hutchins.

Southern Presbyterians.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States at Birmingham, Ala., adopted the Charlotte articles of agreement calling for closer relations of churches using the Presbyterian system. The vote stood 96 to 94.

Dr. Dobyns offered a resolution calling for the adoption of the amended majority report. G. E. Cassell, of Virginia, opposed the resolution, and T. C. McRae, of Arkansas, favored its adoption.

Others taking part in the discussion were Dr. Russel Cecil, of Virginia; Dr. I. S. McElroy, of Georgia; A. M. Scaler, of North Carolina, in favor of the minority report, and C. D. Rinehart in opposition. The minority report, against adoption, failed by a vote of 99 to 92.

The vote on the majority report, calling for the adoption of the articles of agreement, was then ordered.

The effect of the adoption of the articles is that the Southern Presbyterian Church will name 12 representives to the Council of Reformed Churches.

Fairfax Court.

The May term of our Circuit Court convened here on Monday last Judge Louis C. Barley, presiding.

This is Confederate Memorial Day and has been observed according to the announcement made in yesterday's Gazette. This morning committees from Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, and the women's auxiliaries visited the cemeteries adjacent to this city and decorated the graves of Confederate soldiers, and later the Confederate monument at the intersection of Prince and Washington streets and the Confederate mound in Christ Church yard were also decorated. A platform has been erected at the Confederate monument and this evening the exercises proper will be held there. The Confederate veterans will assemble in Lee Camp Hall at 4:30 o'clock and will begin a march at 5 o'clock, escorted by the Alexandria Light Infantry and headed by a drum corps. Case Dismissed.

Among the cases before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning was that of a resident of north Henry street who was charged with assaulting a boy. From the evidence it appears that the sons of the plantiff and the defendant fell out, which resulted in considerable noise and some stonethrowing, during which the accused picked up his neighbor's child, carried him to his home and told him to tell his mother to see that he behaved himself in the future. Justice Caton very properly dismissed the case, and in doing so said that one-half of the people of the city were prefectly willing for children to make all the noise possible, provided they engaged in such diversions in front of the residences of the other half, while the latter were equally willing for their offspring to be as boisterous as possible on or near the premises of the other half. Occasionally Police Court cases resulted, when the charges and cross-charges become the most preplexing issues unfortunate justices are called to investigate.

Suit for Damages.

Robert H. Cox, of this city, administrator of the estate of Hugh S. Murphy, the engineer who was killed September 11 last at Sixth street and Maryland avenue southwest Washington by the overturning of a locomotive of which he was in charge, yesterday filed suit to recover $10,000 damages for the death of Murphy from the Philadelphia Baltimore and Washington Railway Company, and the Southern Railway Company. Mr. Cox has also filed a separate proceeding against the Southern Railway Company for $25,000 damages under the employers' liability act. Murphy was employed by the Southern Railway Company. It is alleged that the switch was defective, and this caused the accident in which Murphy lost his life.

Charged with Disorderly Conduct.

About 1:30 o'clock Wednesday morning people living in the vicinity of Queen and Royal streets were aroused by the conduct of three young men who were on their way home from a saloon in the northwestern section of the city. It is said that stones were thrown and one of the men knocked down and beaten. Officer Henderson yesterday arrested three young men whom he charged with being the disorderly parties. They were brought before the Police Court this morning, and while they admitted that they were in the neighborhood at the time, they denied that they were disorderly. In the absence of positive evidence against them, they were dismissed.

Invitation Accepted.

At the regular communication of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons last night an invitation was received from Francis J. Woodman, Grand Master of the District of Columbia, to attend the laying of the corner stone of the new Masonic Temple for the District of Columbia on St. John's Day, June 24, 1907. Alexandria-Washington Lodge is asked to participate in the parade and ceremonies on that occasion. "The Washington gavel" has been loaned by Potomac Lodge of Washington and Alexandria-Washington Lodge is asked to loan the "Washington trowel," both of which were used by George Washington at the laying of the corner stone of the Capitol. The invitation was accepted by Alexandria-Washington Lodge, and the historic trowel will be loaned on the occasion.

"Pansy Blossom's Baby Party."

The performance of "Pansy Blossom's Baby Party" at Christ Church parish hall last night was a perfect success in every particular and was worthy a much more elaborate setting. The audience crowded the hall to the doors, and applauded most enthusiastically. The choruses were sung with spirit and the whole entertainment went off without a hitch. Miss Janet Rowen pleased with her solos, "Thine Eyes" and "Fairyland," while her duet with Mr. Maddux, "Don't You Think it's Time to Marry?," in which the chorus joined, was encored four times. Miss Ellen Nagel sang "Mammy's Little Pumpkin-colored Coons" and "Pinky-Panky-Poo" with good effect and which were much enjoyed. Mr. Maddux had only one song, "Katie, My Southern Rose," which he sang in his customary sweet tenor voice. Mr. Warren Grimes sang "Roses," proving himself the possessor of an excellent voice; he was deservedly encored. Mr. Martin Green showed off his splendid baritone to perfection in his two songs, "Sing Me to Sleep" and "Stein Song." One of the biggest hits of the evening was "The March of the Toys," in which all took part, Mr. Janney and Mr. Grimes pleasing particularly as the toys whose mechanism refused to work properly and who wandered aimlessly around the stage until they were lifted off. Those who assisted in the choruses were Miss Grace Henry, whose recitation was much enjoyed; Misses Ethel Larmond, Nora Perry, Florence Hackney, Annie Thaler, Lottie Harrison, Messrs. Andrew Hall and James Early. Miss Lelia Steiger played the accompaniments. The entertainment was under the direction of Miss Mamie F. Grigg and Mr. Mahlon Janney.

Rev. C. E. Obermeyer and wife, of St. Louis, are visiting relatives and friends in this city. Mrs. Obermeyer was Miss Kate Appich before her marriage.

Flowers will be scattered over the mounds, on each of which also will be placed a miniature flag of the United States.

"An Evening in Dixie."

An entertainment entitled "An Evening in Dixie" will be given at Lee Camp Hall on Tuesday evening, May 28, under the auspices of the 17th Virginia Regiment Chapter, U. D. C. It will consist of songs, recitations, and a drill, in which forty children will take part, under the direction of Miss Blanche Rotchford. The ladies of the chapter are working very hard to make the affair a success, and a most enjoyable evening is promised.

Death of W. J. Moore.

Mr. W. J. Moore, a well-known and respected resident of lower Fairfax county, died at his home near Franconia at 6 o'clock yesterday evening. The deceased was 79 years old. He leaves a widow and two sons, Dr. S. B. Moore, of this city, and Mr. J. H. Moore, of Fairfax. The funeral will take place from the late residence of the deceased at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Receiver Appointed.

A suit was filed in the Corporation Court today by Chas. W. Moore vs. T. Alton Moore et als., the object of which is for a dissolution of partnership of the firm of W. S. Moore's Sons, to wind up the affairs of the concern, to have a receiver appointed and for a settlement of accounts. City Sergeant Cox was appointed receiver and gave bond in the sum of $1,000.

Pardoned.

Governor Swanson has pardoned John H. Robinson, convicted in the Corporation Court for petit larceny and sentenced to serve six months in jail. Robinson, it will be remembered, was arraigned before the court charged with robbing Southern Railway cars. He had served about five months' imprisonment and was released yesterday evening.

Petition from the County.

It is said that a petition, signed by several hundred persons, has been sent to Governor Swanson from Alexandria county requesting him not to interfere with the execution of the sentence upon John Wright, colored, who is to be hanged today week for assaulting Miss Mable Risley near Luna Park last September.

Child Stolen for Beauty.

The Brandywine river for 300 yards from the People's Railway bridge at Wilmington, Del., has been thoroughly dragged with grappling irons by expert rivermen, without revealing a trace of Francis Malloy, the 4-year-old son of James H. Malloy, who mysteriously disappeared on Tuesday. The parents are distracted with grief.

"I have run down every clew thus far reported, without success," said Mr. Malloy yesterday. "I have not even found anybody, aside from a neighbo're boy, who is but one year older than little Francis, who saw my son, and how he could have disappeared so quickly I cannot understand. I am sure that no one kidnaped him for a ransom, as there is no ransom to get here. He was a beautiful child, however, and some person, fascinated by his appearence, may have carried him away. If he is alive we must patiently wait to hear from those who have him. If he was drowned, his little body will come to the surface. He could not have perished in the brush, because someone would surely have come across him before this."

Hearing that a band of gypsies was located near Shellpot Park, the father went there, but fail to find them. Rumors that a foreigner had taken the boy away could not be traced. Yesterday afternoon the father, in a boat searched the Brandywine, Christ ana and Delaware rivers for the boy, but without result.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys surely point to weak kidney Nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Brights or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommend and sell

Fire on Ocean Steamer.

Fire in the first cabin of the White Star liner Teutonic created great excitement among the 1,200 passengers when the big liner was 900 miles east of Sandy Hook Tuesday afternoon.

The flames required the united efforts of the large force of the engine-room and steward's battalion more than an hour before they were subdued. The fire was due to crossed electric light wires.

The Teutonic reached her pier in New York yesterday from Liverpool, which port she left a week ago Wednesday.

The fire drill of the Teutonic is claimed to be the best on the ocean, and although the flames had gained considerable headway, the volunteer firemen, by chopping away the woodwork and flooding the imperial section with water, got the fire under control.

Dinner was delayed while the fire-fighting work was in progress, and several of the passengers say that the excitement attending the work took away their appetites, and that they did not have any dinner that day.

Sore Nipples.

Any mother who has had experience with this distressing ailment will be pleased to know that a cure may be effected by applying Chamberlain's Salve as soon as the child is done nursing. Wipe it off with a soft cloth before allowing the babe to nurse. Many trained nurses use this salve with best results. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Gibson and Timberman.

Let me mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free Book now. Dr. Shoop's Restorative sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Juvenile Assailant Sentenced.

Charged with assaulting two school girls, Walter Boyce, seventeen years old, of Washington was found guilty by Judge De Lacy, in the Juvenile Court, yesterday afternoon and sentenced to the Reform school for two years. The two girls, Margaret Lewis, fifteen years old, and Caroline Leavell, twelve years old, were the prosecuting witnesses.

Margaret told the court that she was on her way home from school Tuesday afternoon, and when near Third and V streets northeast the prisoner accosted her and then committed the assault. The attention of Sergt. Duvall was attracted and he arrested Boyce after a chase of several blocks. The boy was identified by Caroline Leavell, who said he had assaulted her the latter part of December. Boyce confessed his guilt to the police on the second charge.

A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
